The historic Çeşme Peninsula

The town of Çeşme is rich in history, as can be seen in the Museum, which is housed within the beautiful 16th century castle, just a short stroll from the centre.

The area is famous for its healing hot springs and spas and endless sandy beaches, and boasts some of the Mediterranean's most popular destinations for watersports enthusiasts. Onshore activities include cycling and climbing, while those seeking pure relaxation or therapy will enjoy the thermal baths at Ilica, where the water emerges from the ground at 60 degrees celsius.

Gateway to the Aegean

Çeşme's position at the tip of the Izmir peninsula provides convenient access to the Aegean Sea, as well as to the wider cruising grounds of the Mediterranean.

An ideal cruising base

Spring and autumn provide ideal weather for cruising, while the summer heat is tempered by the prevailing northerly breeze.

Crystal clear waters and sandy beaches characterise the anchorages within an hour or two's sail from the marina, both on the mainland shore and on the nearby island of Chios, just eight miles away.

50nm to the north is the mountainous and wooded island of Lesbos, and a similar distance to the south is Samos - one of the Aegean's most fertile islands.

The Greek destinations of Kos, Rhodes and Crete are all within a couple of days' sailing.

The Marina - a vibrant village atmosphere

Çeşme Marina has been designed to be a unique holiday destination in its own right, the new development blending harmoniously with the traditional flavours and styles of this ancient and strategic Mediterranean port.

The beautiful shoreside marina village is lined with numerous chic cafes and restaurants for fine dining and relaxation, while the modern retail complex includes marine fashion retail outlets, designer boutiques and chandlery. The marina is also home to a yacht club and Carrefour supermarket.

Shopping and nightlife

When it comes to shopping, the marina is a "town within a town", boasting outlets bearing the most prestigious international brands.

Çeşme Marina comes to life at night, when a vibrant, fun atmosphere pervades in the restaurants, cafes and bars along the promenade. The ambiance and choice of fare are truly cosmopolitan and offer something for everyone, to eat in or take away.

There are also numerous quality restaurants to choose from in the old town of Çeşme.

Activities

Some of the best beaches and swimming waters are located in the Çeşme region. There is a wealth of watersports activities: sailing, kite surfing, windsurfing and scuba diving.

Nearby Alacati is one of the best windsurfing areas in Europe; a couple of miles north of the marina, Pirlanta Beach has become the kite surfing capital of Turkey.
